NEW YORK, March 20.—The market this morning opened strong and active with the dealings widely distributed.

Strength was particularly noticeable among the coal stocks, with the Readings and Eries showing substantial gains.

Among the railway shares, advances extended all the way from one-quarter to 1 per cent and the grangers were the lead-ers in respect of activity and extent of uctuations. Northern Pacific was very strong. The local traction stocks were higher on a revival of the rumors of pend-

The early morning news was generally favorable with the exception of the statement that General Botha had refused to accept the new British terms for peace. In consequence, the London market with the exception of the American quarter, was depressed.

After the opening bulge in prices there was much irregularity with heavy realizing in Burlington, the Atchisons, the tractions, People's Gas, and other stocks and much buoyancy in St. Paul, Northern Pacific, common; Missouri Pacific, the Southern securitles and the steels.
